

Orientation Program for New Members

The Office of the Commission Secretary, Executive Clerk of the Commission and Compliance Officer manages the orientation program for new members of the Social Security Commission (SSC). It maintains a compilation of briefing materials, including powerpoint presentations, which are updated regularly, and coordinates with certain management units the conduct of briefings about SSC programs to newly appointed SSC Members in the event that there is a new appointee in the SSC.

In 2023, the new appointive members of the SSC were given the following briefings, viz:

Commissioner Robert Joseph M. de Claro

17 January 2023 - Briefing on Information Technology facilitated by the Information Technology Management Group

24 January 2023 - Briefing About the Social Security Commission facilitated by the Senior Vice President/Office of the Commission Secretary, Executive Clerk of the Commission and Compliance Officer

HR and Financial Briefing facilitated by the Human Resource Services Division/Human Resource Management Group and General Accounting Department

07 February 2023 - Briefing on Investments facilitated by the Investments Sector

Commissioner Eva B. Arcos

04 April 2023 - Briefing About the Social Security Commission facilitated by the Senior Vice President/Office of the Commission Secretary, Executive Clerk of the Commission and Compliance Officer

Officer-in-Charge/Deputy Treasurer Sharon P. Almanza and Deputy Treasurer Erwin Sta. Ana

Bureau of the Treasury

(Primary and Secondary Alternates, Department of Finance/Secretary of Finance)

05 October 2023 - Briefing About the Social Security Commission facilitated by the Senior Vice President/Office of the Commission Secretary, Executive Clerk of the Commission and Compliance Officer