

PROJECT: MODULAR OFFICE SYSTEM AND FURNITURE FOR ILOILO-MOLO AND ILOILO-CENTRAL BRANCHES

QUERIES/CLARIFICATIONS RAISED DURING THE PRE-BID CONFERENCE:

	Query/Clarifications	TWG/BAC Reply
1	Are swatches still required for submission?	Yes, swatches and samples are still required to be submitted during the bid opening. As part of the evaluation criteria, it is important for us to assess the quality, color, and texture of the materials being proposed. Therefore, all bidders must include the necessary swatches and samples with their submissions to ensure compliance with the bid requirements. For complete reference, please refer to Section VII. Technical Specifications of the Bidding Documents. Please be reminded to provide all applicable cross-references/supporting documents as proof of compliance of your bid.
2	How many sets of technical documents do we have to prepare?	The bidder should submit three (3) sets of all documents (eligibility, technical and financial documents).
3	Are required forms available?	The bidding documents contains all the needed/ necessary forms relevant to the project.