

Orientation Program for New Members

The Office of the Commission Secretary, Executive Commission Clerk and Compliance Officer manages the orientation program for new members of the Social Security Commission (SSC). It maintains a compilation of briefing materials, including powerpoint presentations, which are updated regularly, and coordinates with certain management units for the conduct of briefings about SSS programs to newly appointed SSC Members in the event that there is a new appointee in the SSC.

In 2024, the new appointive members of the SSC were given the following briefings, viz:
