

2024 Performance Evaluation of the Social Security Commission

The 2024 Performance Evaluation of the Social Security Commission (SSC) was carried out in February 2025. The average ratings given to the evaluation statements by the members of the SSC in the 2024 Performance Evaluation are as follows:

 The Commission operates under a set of policies and procedures which have been made known to all members. The Commission, as a collegiate body, is diverse and possesses the right mix of knowledge, skills, and experience. The Commission provides director development activities (e.g., trainings, seminars, etc.) to keep its members up to date with the relevant national and global developments, and to equip them with adequate knowledge and skills to perform their responsibilities. The meetings of the Commission are timely scheduled and adequate in terms of frequency and duration. The meetings of the Commission have useful materials and an atmosphere that is conducive to a fair discussion of the items on the agenda. The members of the Commission participate actively during meetings, are supportive of each other, and debate each other constructively in case of disagreement. The roles of the Commission and the Management are clearly distinguished. The Commission neither interferes with matters that are within the purview of Management nor abdicates its responsibilities to Management. The Commission discusses sufficiently, with objectivity and independence, proposals from Management before granting approval. The Commission has effective monitoring tools and regularly monitors the overall performance of the Management as well as its implementation of corporate strategies and policies, business plans and operating budgets. The Commission provides the GOCC's VMG, strategy maps, values and standards which it revisits from time to time to ensure continued relevance.
