

The Social Security Commission (SSC) is a collegial body that directs and controls the Social Security System (SSS). It is composed of the Secretary of the Department of Finance (DOF) as ex-officio Chairperson, the SSS President and CEO as Vice Chairperson, the Secretary of Labor and Employment as ex-officio Member, three (3) Members who represent the workers’ group, at least one of whom is a woman, and three (3) Members who represent the employers’ group, at least one of whom is a woman.

The SSC serves as the policy-making and governing board of the SSS. It also performs quasi-judicial function over disputes arising under the Social Security Act with respect to coverage, benefits, contributions and penalties or related matters.
