CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND RELATIONS WITH STAKEHOLDERS

Section 31. Relationship with SSS Members and Stakeholders - All Commissioners and Officers accept their positions fully aware that they assume certain responsibilities not only to the SSS and its members, but also to the different constituencies or Stakeholders, who have the right to expect that the SSS is being run in a prudent manner and with due regard to the interests of all Stakeholders. Consequently, Commissioners and Officers shall deal fairly with SSS employees, members, suppliers and other Stakeholders. No Commissioner or Officer may take unfair advantage of SSS employees, members, suppliers and other Stakeholders through manipulation, concealment, abuse of confidential or privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts, or any other unfair-dealing practices.⁴⁸

Section 32. Corporate Social Responsibility - As an integral part of the National Government, the SSS is inherently mandated to be socially responsible, to act and operate as a good corporate citizen. The SSC recognizes and performs the obligations the SSS has towards the National Government, its members, suppliers and other Stakeholders and the communities in which it operates.⁴⁹

The protection of the reputation and goodwill of the SSS is of fundamental importance such that the Commissioners, Officers and SSS employees should be aware of the disciplinary implications of breaches of ethical policies mandated by the GCG.

The SSC shall create an environment that enables its people to raise genuine and legitimate concerns internally. In addition, the SSC shall enact policies providing for a regular employee development discussions and the creation of structured training programs for continuing personal and professional development of employees.⁵⁰

In line with its commitment and dedication to serve the community in which it operates, the SSC shall expand its Corporate Social Responsibility to social welfare programs and policies that address the basic needs of Filipinos especially the poor and vulnerable, and such activities that aid needy victims in times of man-made and natural disasters and initiatives that encourage volunteerism among individual SSS employees and employee organizations.

Further, the SSC shall establish an environmentally friendly value chain to safeguard the environment such as the management and implementation of a paperless environment at SSS.

Section 33. Responsibility of Commissioners, Officers and Employees - Reciprocally, every Commissioner, Officer or employee shall:

1. Remember that the biggest stakeholder is the Government;
2. Share the vision of the SSS;
3. Be accountable to the public;
4. Listen and learn from his/her co-employees;
5. Think and act as a team;
6. Focus on SSS members and strive for SSS members satisfaction;
7. Respect others;
8. Communicate with members and stakeholders;

9. Deliver results and celebrate success; and
10. Protect the reputation of the SSS.⁵¹

As public officers, all Commissioners, Officers and Employees must exemplify the behavior and professional demeanor consistent with laws, rules, regulations, policies and procedures of the highest standard.⁵² As such, a “Whistleblowing System” is institutionalized to encourage and empower all SSS employees to report any potentially illegal, improper and unethical conduct that he or she may become aware of at the workplace or in connection with work.

Said reports, including the identity of the whistleblower and the person who is the subject of a report, will be kept confidential, unless compelled by law or by the Courts to be revealed, or unless the whistleblower authorized the disclosure of his/her identity.⁵³

The SSS shall establish a Whistleblowing System, duly approved by the SSC, which adheres to the whistleblowing policy and purpose enumerated under GCG Memorandum Circular No. 2025-01 and any of its subsequent iterations.

Section 34. Dealing with SSS Members - Every employee shall practice integrity and honesty in dealing with SSS members as a necessary part of success and sustainability of the SSS, providing effective and efficient service which give fair value and consistent quality, reliability and safeguard the SS Fund. SSS shall operate policies of continuous improvement, of both processes and skill of the staff, to take advantage of advances in all aspects of society, in order to ensure that it continues to add value to SSS member benefits.⁵⁴

Section 35. Non-Commercial Activities - When it becomes necessary in specific cases that a Non-commercial program be pursued by the SSS, it shall adopt the prescribed procedure of the GCG found in the GCG Memorandum Circular 2012-06, ensuring that it is based on well-thought feasibility studies, with Program Funds separately accounted for and monitored as approved by the GCG.

Section 36. Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) - The SSS adopts the ADR Policy as the primary means of settling or adjudicating conflicting rights and claims between Government Agencies and other GOCCs.

Section 37. Formal Recognition of Stakeholders - The following are the stakeholders of the SSS:

1. The State
2. SSS pensioners and beneficiaries
3. Registered Private Sector Employees, Self-Employed and Voluntary Members
4. Registered Employers
5. Supervising government agencies and other partner government institutions
6. Private partner institutions, to include private corporations, third-party collecting agents, various suppliers and service providers, etc.

⁵⁴ Adopted from Section 37, GCG-MC No. 2012-07.

Section 38. Hierarchy of Stakeholders' Interests - Universal and equitable coverage and protection through a viable Social Security Program should be designed to increase stakeholders' value through the following:

1. Provision of social safety nets
2. Safe, efficient and convenient payment channels
3. Integrity of benefit payments and delivery system
4. Post-employment security and well-being
5. Timely, adequate and meaningful benefits
6. Prudent investment management

Section 39. Policy in Communicating with Stakeholders - A dominant theme in all issues related to corporate governance is the vital importance of disclosure. The more transparent the internal workings of the organization, the more difficult it will be for management to misappropriate assets or mismanage funds.

The most basic and all-encompassing disclosure requirement is that all material information, anything that could potentially affect financial viability, should be publicly disclosed. Such information would include contribution collections, benefit payouts, investment earnings, acquisition or disposal of assets, board changes and other related transactions.

All disclosed information should be released through the approved procedure for corporate affairs and media announcements as well as through the annual reports.

Section 40. System of Accountability and Relationship with Stockholders Legitimate Interests - The SSS always acts in good faith in its dealing with all its stakeholders.

The SSC is primarily accountable to the stakeholders, and Management, in turn, to the SSC. The SSC provides the stakeholders with a balanced and understandable assessment of SSS performance, position and prospects on a regular basis. Management, on the other hand, does the same for all the members of the SSC.

This responsibility extends to interim and other price-sensitive public reports to regulators as well as to information required to be presented by statutory requirement. The SSC is also responsible for maintaining a sound system of internal control to safeguard stakeholders' investments and SSS assets.

Pension reform policies and other measures should continuously be crafted, disseminated and implemented to address the interest of its various stakeholders that would guarantee adequate and sustainable pension benefits. Also the continued viability of the pension fund should be maintained/improved towards its perpetuity.

DISCLOSURE AND TRANSPARENCY REQUIREMENTS

Section 41. Requirements on Disclosure - SSS undertakes to fully disclose all material information to the National Government and to the public, its ultimate stakeholder, in a timely and accurate manner at all times, including but not limited to unrestricted public web access to:
