Orientation Program for New Members

The Office of the Commission Secretary, Compliance Officer and Executive Commission Clerk manages the orientation program for new members of the Social Security Commission (SSC). It maintains a compilation of briefing materials, including powerpoint presentations, which are updated regularly, and coordinates with certain management units the conduct of briefings about SSS programs to newly appointed SSC Members in the event that there is a new appointee in the SSC.

Having been appointed on 31 July 2025 as a new member of the SSC representing the Employers' Group, Commissioner Roy G. Padiernos was given the following briefings, viz:
